

Luke Thayer
 Sure he's funny with his unorthodox view of social norms and insight into the choices people make but look at those eyes!
 Luke is the creator of the popular live comedy hour, "The Living Room" in New York City and has been in numerous comedy festivals across the country and internationally.

He has been featured MTV.com, Lifetime.com, Nerve.com and seen on Tyra, Food Network, and All Night with Joey Reynolds on NBC

Aaron Kominos-Smith
 Audiences connect instantly with Aaron Kominos-Smith charming wit and energetic characters. His humor varies from observational thoughts on the mundane to articulated commentary about society sprinkled with a few dashes of wackiness. Simultaneously performing comedy and studying architecture in college, Aaron went on to work as a professional architect. After realizing buildings take years to complete while a joke can instantly bring people joy, he made the switch from constructing buildings to constructing jokes.
